FROM THE Provincial

This fall the international nature of the Ursulines of the Roman Union was experienced in an extraordinary meeting of provincials held in our Asia/Pacific Region. As our faithful benefactors you are part of this international community. We came from different cultures, we spoke different languages, we had different ways of doing things, different ways of thinking.

The provincials were divided into groups for visiting different locations. These immersion groups brought us into contact with people facing critical social and economic situations. Groups met refugees in Cambodia, economic migrants and persons who had been trafficked or are at risk of being trafficked in Thailand, persons involved in environmental issues in Taiwan, and aboriginal peoples in Central Australia. Members of the groups engaged in dialogue with Muslims, Hindus and Buddhists in Indonesia and Thailand. Through telling our stories of encounter, we became more united in mind and heart.

My experience was in Central Australia where I shared in the life of our sisters, Sr. Mary Wicks, a medical doctor and Sr. Anne Sortes, a pastoral worker, who are committed to working for the health care and social needs of the aboriginal peoples. Sr. Maureen Welch, as the international coordinator of the Office of Justice, Peace and the Integrity of Creation, JPIC, was invited to participate in this meeting and accompanied the sisters visiting Thailand and Cambodia.

After our immersion experiences we met in Sydney, Australia. As is our custom, at the end of our meeting we sent a message from this group, the Enlarged General Council, to our sisters, associates and colleagues. The message of 2016 is based on the parable of the Good Samaritan in which Jesus is asked the question: "Who is my neighbor?"

This gospel question is especially timely for us and is new every day. Like the disciples Jesus invites us to "Go and do the same." Luke 10: 37.

We deeply appreciate your generous support to our retired and infirm sisters and your interest in and support of our ministries. We are grateful to each of you with whom we share the commitment to be neighbor to those in need.

With gratitude and love,
Sr. Jane Finnerty, OSU

Benefactors

We thank the donors listed on the following pages whose generosity enables us to continue the long tradition of Ursuline service that includes respectful care of our infirm Sisters who served so faithfully during their active years and to those Sisters who continue to address the contemporary needs of our society through their ministries. The Sisters pray for you and your loved ones in thanksgiving for your faithfulness.
